*Celebrating Artistic Director
Dr. Grant Cochran's
25th Season*

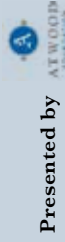

Master Works

Saturday, October 14, 8:00 p.m.

Atwood Concert Hall, Alaska Center for the Performing Arts
Pre-concert lecture at 7:00 p.m.

Dr. Grant Cochran's 25th season opens with a program of inspiring choral-orchestral masterpieces: Stravinsky's *Symphony of Psalms, Brahms' *Begrüßungsgesang (Don't let the name scare you – this short work has a beautiful and shattering impact!), Beethoven's *Choral Fantasia featuring pianist Timothy Smith, and Mozart's *Dauides Penitente with sopranos Kate Egan and Christine Renee Keene, and tenor Keith Kenley.

This will be a night of great music from great composers with great local soloists in the Greatland – an opening night musical celebration to remember!

Presented by

Generations: Unity Through Music

Presented with Anchorage Youth Orchestras

Saturday, May 5, 7:00 p.m.

Atwood Concert Hall, Alaska Center for the Performing Arts
Pre-concert lecture at 6:00 p.m.

The Anchorage Concert Chorus collaborates with one of our favorite musical partners for the first time since the 2012-13 Season:

the Anchorage Youth Orchestras! In addition to previewing the Chorus's upcoming tour of Italy, the concert will highlight Francis Poulenc's *Stabat Mater, a masterpiece of the 20th century, featuring local soprano and frequent Chorus soloist Mari Hahn. This will be a showcase of Anchorage talent across the generations - the youth of AYO with the adults of ACC – coming together again to present a profound piece of music!

Community Messiah

Sunday, December 3, 2:00 p.m.

West High School Auditorium

You're invited to a grand and important Anchorage tradition that's the perfect start to the holiday season! Since 1947, local singers and musicians have gathered to present Handel's Messiah, now organized by the Anchorage Concert Chorus. That first performance is what started it all for ACC -- the Chorus grew out of that landmark cultural event organized by legendary ACC founder Lorene Harrison.

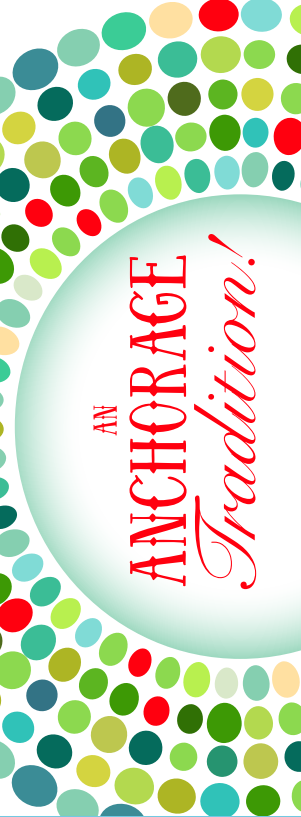

Once again, this year's concert will include selections from Handel's iconic treasure, featuring the local Messiah Chorus and Orchestra, local conductor, and all local soloists. Tradition.

Presented by ConocoPhillips

Join the Messiah Chorus!

- 16 years or older.
- No audition required.
- Rehearsals: Sun., Nov. 5, 12, 19, 26 and Sat., Dec. 2 at Central Lutheran Church.

AN ANCHORAGE Tradition!

Family Holiday Pops

Sunday, December 17, 4:00 p.m.

Atwood Concert Hall, Alaska Center for the Performing Arts
Pre-concert lecture at 3:00 p.m.

Year after year, this is one of Anchorage's most popular Holiday traditions. Make family memories with our magical selection of traditional and contemporary carols, hymns, and songs of the season. From the intimate to the spectacular, Family Holiday Pops is sure to please kids of every age – especially Chorister Jon Sharpe's beloved annual reading of A Visit From St. Nicholas. And be sure to come back out to the lobby after the show to visit Santa and Mrs. Claus!

ACC Tour of Italy!

Rome. Milan. Florence. Venice.

The Anchorage Concert Chorus will once again represent our community and all of Alaska during a concert trip abroad – this time to more of the most beautiful performance venues in Europe, and some of the most significant and important basilicas and cathedrals in the world! For the first time ever, we will utilize innovative media and resources to share our concert and tour experiences with you.

Over the last 40 years we've toured the United States, South America, Canada, United Kingdom, Australia, New Zealand, and Eastern and Western Europe. This tour will be like no other, and you'll want to follow our musical adventure as we close our 2017-18 Season in Italy!

Special Tour Preview Concert

Sunday, May 27, 3:00 p.m.

Location: TBA

Help send the Anchorage Concert Chorus off to Italy in style, and enjoy the music we'll be performing throughout our exciting tour! Our program will include traditional and contemporary sacred music befitting concerts and services in Italy's finest churches, as well as the music of Americana to present to our Italian audiences.
