Guest conductor David Tang will lead the Anchorage Concert Chorus, a full orchestra and a talented array of soloists and dancers on a journey of absolutely stunning music from the heart and soul of Andrew Lloyd Webber.

The evening will include the Alaskan premiere of his Requiem which he dedicated to his father, William Lloyd Webber. The Requiem won the 1986 Grammy Award for Best Classical Contemporary Composition. Featuring Soprano, Christine Keene, and Treble Sopranos, Benjamin Harmon and Alexandra Guerra.

The evening will also feature a collection of Andrew's greatest hits from such shows as Phantom of the Opera, Cats, Jesus Christ Superstar, Evita and Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. Impressive costumes, spirited performers and dancers combined with superb soloists and the always excellent Chorus and Orchestra will ensure that anyone who loves the music of Andrew Lloyd Webber will enjoy this production!
